I. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On January 7, 2016, Plaintiff Joshua R. Auxier ("Auxier") filed a putative class action Complaint in United States District Court, Western District of Washington at Seattle, Case No. 2:16-cv-25 (the "Action") against Defendants Physicians & Dentists Credit Bureau and Jason Woehler (collectively, "Defendants"), on behalf of himself and a class of persons who had allegedly been sued in a debt collection action by the Defendants in a division of the King County District Court in which he and the putative class members did not reside, which allegedly

1 constituted a violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692i.

2 2. On April 8, 2016, the Court consolidated Case No. 2:16-cv-25 with this action
3 (Dkt. #38).

4 3. On October 26, 2016, Auxier filed his First Amended Complaint (Dkt. #245),
5 which added James Duncan and Dixie Duncan (the "Duncans"), and Gennell Cordova
6 ("Cordova") as additional Plaintiffs (with Auxier, collectively, the "Plaintiffs"), and added King
7 County as a nominal defendant. All Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and a class of persons,
8 alleged that they had been sued in a debt collection action by the Defendants in a division of the 9 King County District Court in which they and the putative class members did not reside, which 10 allegedly constituted a violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692i.
11 The Plaintiffs also alleged that the Defendants had violated the Washington Consumer Protection
12 Act, RCW 19.86.090, by suing them in a division of the King County District Court in which 13 they and the putative class members did not reside.
14

15 4. Defendants deny Plaintiffs' allegations in the Action and contend, among other
16 things, that (1) King County District Court constituted a unified district court, which authorized 17 them to file their debt collection actions in any division of the district court, and (2) it would 18 prevail in the Action if it proceeded.
19

20 5. On November 22, 2016, this Court denied Plaintiffs' Motion for Class
21 Certification (Dkt. #257). On December 6, 2016, Plaintiffs filed with the Ninth Circuit Court of 22 Appeals a Petition for Permission to Appeal this Court's denial of their Motion for Class
23 Certification. The Petition for Permission to Appeal was denied on March 21, 2017.
24

25 6. The Defendants have identified approximately 2359 persons who were sued by 26 them in a debt collection action in a division of the King County District Court where the 27 defendants did not reside, from and after January 7, 2012.

7. The parties have engaged in contested litigation and have exchanged substantial information about the facts underlying Plaintiffs' claims and the claims of the Members of the Settlement Classes. They have conducted extensive, arm's-length settlement discussions over the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

8. Based upon extensive analysis of the facts and the law applicable to Plaintiffs' claims, and taking into account the extensive burdens and expense of litigation, including the risks and uncertainties associated with protracted trials and appeals and the fair, cost-effective and assured method of resolving the claims of the Settlement Classes, Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel have concluded that the Settlement Agreement provides substantial benefits to the Settlement Classes and is fair, reasonable, adequate and in the best interests of the Settlement Classes.

9. Although Defendants deny the assertions by the Plaintiffs in the Action, and deny any wrongdoing or liability to Plaintiffs or the putative class of any kind, Defendants have concluded that the Settlement Agreement is in their best interests to avoid the time, expense and management distraction of defending potentially protracted litigation.

10. This Court previously considered Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement, together with supporting materials, including the Settlement Agreement, the Notice Plan, and the proposed Class Notice. On June 1, 2017, this Court entered its Order Preliminarily Approving Class Action Settlement, Authorizing Distribution of Class Notice and Setting Final Approval Hearing (the "Preliminary Approval Order") (Dkt. #392). Among other things, the Preliminary Approval Order approved and directed the distribution of the Class Notice regarding the Settlement Agreement, set deadlines for the filing of requests for exclusion and objections, and set the date for the Final Approval Hearing.

11. The Settlement Administrator has submitted a declaration establishing that the ORDER, JUDGMENT AND DECREE GRANTING FINAL APPROVAL TO CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT, APPROVING ATTORNEY FEE AWARD, APPROVING CLASS REPRESENTATIVE PLAINTIFF AWARD AND DISMISSING CLAIMS WITH PREJUDICE - 3

1 Class Notice to the Settlement Class was distributed as required by the Preliminary Approval
2 Order.

3 12. On July 14, 2017, Plaintiffs' Counsel filed a motion seeking approval of an
4 Attorney Fee Award and Class Representatives' Incentive Fees (Dkt. #393). On October 16,
5 2017, Plaintiffs' Counsel filed a motion seeking final approval of the Settlement Agreement.

6 13. On October 24, 2017, this Court held the Final Approval Hearing to consider,
7 among other things, whether to grant final approval to (a) the Settlement Agreement, (b)
8 Plaintiffs' Counsel's petition for an Attorney Fee Award and the Class Representatives'
9 Incentive Fees, and (c) the entry of this Final Approval Order.
10

11 14. Having read, reviewed and considered the papers filed with this Court, the oral 12 arguments of counsel, and the written and oral objections and comments of all those who
13 appeared at the Final Approval Hearing, and based on the entire record in the Action, the Court
14 finds that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, adequate and in the best interests of the 15 members of Settlement Classes and should be finally approved.
16

17 II. ORDER, JUDGMENT AND DECREE

18 1. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the claims asserted in this 19 proceeding including the claims that are the subject of the Settlement Agreement, has personal
20 jurisdiction over the settling parties (including the persons in the Settlement Classes), and subject
21 matter jurisdiction to approve the Settlement.

22 2. The parties have complied with the terms of the Preliminary Approval Order
23 regarding the Notice Plan. Notice given to the members of the Settlement Classes was 24 reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Settlement Classes of the pendency
25 of this action, all material terms of the Agreement, their opportunity to exclude themselves from 26

27 the Settlement Classes, to object to or to comment on the Settlement Agreement, and to appear at

1 the Final Approval Hearing. The notice was reasonable and the best notice practicable under the
 2 circumstances, was due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all members of the Settlement Classes,
 3 and complied fully with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and federal constitutional due
 4 process, and any other applicable rules of the Court. Members of the Settlement Classes were 5 provided a full opportunity to participate in the Final Approval Hearing, and all members of the 6 Settlement Classes and other persons wishing to be heard have been heard. Accordingly, the 7 Court determines that all members of the Settlement Classes, except those who have timely and 8 properly excluded themselves from the Settlement Class, are bound by the Agreement and this 9 Final Approval Order.
 10

11 3. Two Class Members timely delivered requests to exclude themselves from the 12 Agreement to the Settlement Administrator. Both opt outs also timely delivered properly
 13 completed Claims to the Settlement Administrator. Class Counsel is directed to communicate
 14 with these two Class Members to attempt to clarify if they wish to be excluded from the 15 Settlement or wish to receive a Settlement payment. If these Class Members do not clarify with 16 Class Counsel their intentions within thirty days of the date such communication is mailed to 17 them, these Class Members will be considered to be bound by the Agreement. Class Counsel is 18 directed to file a declaration following the thirty-day period to inform the Court of the 19 clarification effort. If Class Counsel identifies either or both of the Class Members in the 20 declaration as having clarified and requesting to be excluded from the Agreement, any such 21 Class Member shall be deemed to have opted out of the Agreement, and will not be bound by the 22 Agreement or this Final Approval Order.
 23
 24

25 4. The Settlement Classes (as defined in the Preliminary Approval Order) are 26 granted final certification for purposes of the Settlement.

27 5. The Court hereby grants final approval to the Settlement Agreement and finds that

1 it is fair, adequate and reasonable, and in the best interests of the members of the Settlement
2 Classes as a whole. The parties entered into the Settlement Agreement after contested litigation
3 and in good faith after extensive, non-collusive and arm's-length negotiations. The Court has 4 considered and overrules all of the filed objections, if any.

5 6. Neither this Final Approval Order nor the Settlement Agreement is an admission
6 or indication by the Plaintiffs or Defendants of the validity or invalidity of any claims in the 7 Action or of any liability or wrongdoing. This Final Approval Order and the Settlement
8 Agreement are not a concession, and neither of them shall be used as an admission or indication
9 with respect to any claim of any wrongdoing, fault or omission by the Plaintiffs or Defendants or 10 any other person in connection with any transaction or occurrence or any statement, release or 11 written document issued, filed or made.

13 7. Plaintiffs and all members of the Settlement Classes shall be and hereby are 14 conclusively deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released and discharged the Defendants
15 from the claims released pursuant to the Settlement Agreement. This release is binding and 16 effective on each member of the Settlement Classes and any of their predecessors, successors,
17 partners, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, custodians, agents, assigns, representatives, marital 18 communities, heirs, executors, trustees, and administrators.

20 8. Plaintiffs and all members of the Settlement Classes are hereby barred and 21 permanently enjoined from prosecuting, commencing or continuing any proceedings against the 22 Defendants concerning claims released pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.

24 9. Without affecting the finality of this Final Approval Order, the Court reserves
25 continuing jurisdiction over the Parties to the Agreement and the members of the Settlement
26 Classes, to administer, supervise, construe and enforce the Agreement in accordance with its 27 terms.
